APPLICATION FOR PARDON REFUSED

IN CASE OF JAMES WILLIAMS WHO KILLED M. D. BARTELSON IN MIAMI.

(Miami Record.)

In spite of the powerful influences in his behalf the state pardoning board, at its last meeting, refused to pardon James Williams, who is serving a life sentence for the murder of Mark D. Bartelton, at this place about three years ago.

Williams comes from one of the most prominent families in Georgia. His friends say that when a youngster he had a severe fall from the top of a building, which resulted in an injury to his brain, and it is thought that he became insane from that fall.

After remaining in the asylum a year he was given a furlough by Dr. Powell, it being the opinion that he was temporarily cured.

While on the furlough he took a trip to Florida and while at Miami shot and killed M. D. Bartelton, of Jacksonville.

He was arrested and after a long trial was sentenced to the penitentiary for life, the plea of insanity being made at that time.

Governor Terrell, of Georgia, at the request of Hon. Tom Williams, of Reidsville, father of the boy, wrote a letter to Governor Jennings, who retired from office last Tuesday, reciting the facts in the case and urging his pardon so that he could be put back in the Georgia asylum.

Hon. Thomas Eason was employed to go before the Florida pardoning board and urge the pardon. This Mr. Eason did, but the board declined the pardon and Williams will probably have to remain in the penitentiary for some time to come.

AMUSEMENTS.

LAST NIGHT'S PLAY.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather a large audience was present at the opera house last night to witness the rendition of "The Little Stow-away" by the Mabel Paige Company. The play, which is one of the best in the extensive repertoire of the company, was faultlessly interpreted and the special scenery and appropriate costumes received the highest commendation from those composing the audience. The specialties were greatly enjoyed.

The Mabel Paige Company will appear again to-night and will close their engagement after a matinee and night performance to-morrow.

GORTON'S MINSTRELS.

Gorton's Minstrels will appear at the opera house on Monday, January 16.

Gorton's Minstrels are, by no means, strangers in Pensacola, as they have appeared here on many previous occasions, their performances having always been classed among the best. The addition this season of many high class specialties of a novel and interesting character insures a performance satisfactory and pleasing in all details. Among the notable features is the stage setting of the "first part," representing a tropical scene in Florida, with the magnificent Ponce de Leon Hotel in the background. Rich and elegant costumes add still further to the beauty of this incomparable stage picture. The entire company is composed of capable performers, each one selected with special reference to his ability. The comedy, music and various specialties are said to be high class in every respect. The press opinions in the various cities where this organization has recently appeared, are of a very favorable character, and there is every indication that the performance is all that it is represented to be.

GYMNASIUM ENTERTAINMENT.

It is announced that in the near future there will be an interesting entertainment given for the benefit of the Pensacola Athletic Club and will take place in the Gymnasium. The services of the talented magician, Mr. Walter H. Bliss, have been engaged, and he will be ably assisted by the leading talent of the city, including Miss Beatrice White, Miss Nellie Roberts, Mr. Beveridge Monroe, Mr. B. C. Heinberg and Mr. R. J. Connelly.

THE COMING AUTO RACES

ORMOND AND DAYTONA MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THE BIG EVENT.

(Jacksonville Metropolis.)

The condition of the Ormond-Daytona beach, where the automobile races will be run, beginning on January 23d, is, according to old residents, never better. Its sand is composed largely of the shells of the conch, clam, peculiar to this part of Florida.

This shell is about half an inch long and very thin. For ages nature has been rolling them, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them.

Examined under the microscope, each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents it from holding together; yet the moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down almost as hard as asphalt.

It seems made for automobilists; for regardless of weather conditions, there is no mud, no dust, tires are never heated, owing to the moisture, and an exploded tire is unknown. Twice each twenty-four hours the course is entirely rebuilt by the tides. Being almost level, and with an average rise and fall of only two feet nine inches at extreme low tide, this beach is from three hundred to five hundred feet wide, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Mr. Flagler's Experience.

H. M. Flagler, according to the New York Tribune, became interested in motor cars last summer in the White Mountains, and has a new steam touring car of a popular make, and has also ordered a heavy gasoline car. Recently, while on his way to Palm Beach on a special train, he stopped at Ormond, and accepted an invitation to ride down the beach in the automobile of J. F. Hathaway, organizer of the Florida East Coast Association, under the auspices of which the races will be run. Mr. Flagler beat his train to Daytona by two minutes, although the distance by the beach is more than a mile further than by railroad.

When he got through he said: "Now I understand why the automobilists are so enthusiastic over the beach."

There are said to be more automobilists in Daytona now than in the other town of its population in the world. Last summer the Florida East Coast Automobile Association built an attractive and commodious club house on the beach, directly opposite the halfway post of the twenty-mile course. The club has a membership of two hundred, including W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., H. M. Flagler, Howard Gould and John Jacob Astor.

Hotels Expect Crowds.

Daytona has erected two new hotels, and nearly all of the twenty others have made extensive improvements. All expect to be filled at the time of the auto races. At Ormond three hundred men have been busy on the addition to the hotel, and a new railroad bridge across the Halifax river, so that passenger trains can run to its very door. A large garage has been erected and a driver's club house, with thirty sleeping rooms. At the hotel on the beach substantial additions and improvements have been made in preparation for the rush of the races. First-class hotel accommodations will also be found at St. Augustine's hotels, from which the railroad company will run excursions to Ormond and Daytona while the race meet is going on.

HATS OFF.

Facts About the American Indian's Healthy Hair.

The American Indian accustomed from time immemorial to go bareheaded in all kinds of weather is never troubled with falling hair or baldness.

The close atmosphere caused by our "civilized" head-gear is conducive to the breeding of infinitesimal germs which dig into the scalp and thrive on the sap of the hair-root.

This true cause of baldness is of recent discovery and explains the non-success of all hair-vigors which treat baldness as a functional disorder.

Newbro's Herpicide is a direct exterminator of the germ. "It destroys the cause and permits the hair to grow as nature intended."
